SHU Offers What

We Need . . .

Necessary — 1) Needed for the continuing existence or functioning of something; essential, 2) Needed to achieve a certain result, 3) Required by obligation.

Sacred Heart has fulfilled Webster's definition admirably by offering all of life's little necessities: 1) What does a student need to continue existing? Well for one thing, sleep. Sacred Heart has lounges with the softest couches — they'll lull you into the deepest sleep. And who can forget the SHU "dining room?" Not too many people since it's the liveliest place SHU has during convocation period. But how many are eating?

Then, speaking of essentials, there's the pub. No explanation needed here: Chubby's offers what we need. It's that simple. 2) What do students need to achieve results? Friends help and SHU's full of them. Friends to talk with, mix with, eat and drink with — SHU offers them all. SHU's got the winning teams to beat the opposition. SHU does it all with style. 3) As for our obligations, SHU helps us through them. When we need to study we trudge to SHU's library. When we need books we exhaust our funds in SHU's bookstore. We'll always have needs and as long as SHU's there they will be fulfilled.

SHU Is More

Wild dances and wilder weekends are major ingredients in the creation of a SHU student. No coed is complete without that crucial break from the books. Libraries fade in the distance as we head toward the music that leads to fun. Textbooks, paints, and calculators are left behind in the rush to post-school life. Be it a Monday or a Friday, the SHU student always finds time to loosen the collar of academia and kick up his heels. Studying is forgotten for the moment and partying becomes the reality. A sigh escapes, a song comes on, a friend is made . . .

Than Just Academia

SHU Students Are

Do you know anyone who is boring, loves perpetual solitude, hates people? Do you know anyone who isn't into giving caution an occasional toss into the wind? If so, they must NOT be attending SHU. Sacred Heart people are anything but boring. The very word "dull" sends them into fits of yawning. SHU people are vibrant; they stand out in a crowd. Whether decked out in their threads or befeathered in Halloween finery, SHU people demand your attention. And they know just how to go about getting it. In basketball, baseball, and soccer, if the score doesn't catch your eye the legs will.

SHU people are friendly. If you want to play cards in the cafe or have a beer in the pub, there's always a group to join, a new person to meet — take your pick. SHU people are kissable, danceable, laughable, and loveable. So forget the bores and live a little. SHU people are great.

SHU Is A

Almost everyone has something to do with their lives, but never will you find so many diversified ways of going about it than at SHU. Our bartenders will amaze you with their beer and wine tapping skills. Our security guards will astound you with the way they steer those carts. Our faculty will stun you with their seemingly endless amounts of knowledge and our staff will overwhelm you with their desire to help. Then there are the students who make Sacred Heart a way of life. Never before, in one place, has there ever been a group of people who better exemplify a great way of living. SHU has married and single people, employed and unemployed people, crazy and serious people. SHU has the best people! SHU is a way of life and it is a life we're proud to be a part of.

Way of Life ...

SHU Makes

First you start with nothing. You know no one and no one knows you. You are numbers in a crowd. Group 1, Group 2, they call out at you. You file out onto unfamiliar grounds behind a person you've never seen before but must suddenly trust — your Tour Guide. Your faces are drawn and confused when your tour guide turns around and says "Welcome to SHU" and makes you introduce yourselves. Slowly you look around and the faces become friendly, the tour guide is helpful and you begin to have fun. The past is behind you and your future is looking brighter by the minute. Forget about former ties for a while and revel in the versatility of SHU and its people. No two are alike in the entire university and each one is waiting to make your acquaintance. So get out there and be yourselves for the whole world to see. SHU loves new faces, and we're waiting to see yours. You started with nothing and now, thanks to SHU, you have it all!

A Difference . . .

SHU Has What

It Takes to . . .

Get you through the year. Semester after semester, Sacred Heart offers it all; support, direction, camaraderie. SHU's got what it takes to keep us coming back for more. If ever there was need for a friend, some advice, or a hug, Sacred Heart has been there; SHU provides. From day one, it gives to its students, helping them to learn and grow. SHU has what it takes to bring people together. During class, at a game or party, Sacred Heart moves as one with the unity of its people. Togetherness abounds at SHU and the students have got it down to a science. Beer fests in the parking lot, and frisbee tournaments in the quad, are just two of many ingenious ways creative SHU-ies have come up with to further the art of togetherness. SHU has what it takes to keep people loose. They can be packed in the Activities Office or alone in the library, but they're close. There's always someone to talk to on the faculty or staff and there will always be good friends. SHU has what it takes to make us happy.

To SHU

*We Dedicate
The 1985 Prologue To*

Barbara Susi

There is an extremely special, caring, and dedicated woman in our midst. She has been among us for many years, filling our lives with laughter and joy.

What can you say about a person who dedicates every thought, word, and action to others? A person who gives of themselves freely and never expects anything in return. You can say this is Barbara Susi.

Barb is a friend to all of us. She is loved and admired for many reasons. She is seen on campus as a special events co-ordinator and director of Barjan Enterprises. Her duties vary from coordinating graduation to checking I.D.'s at pub nights and mixers.

Anyone that knows Barb can readily avail themselves to her beautiful, uplifting smile. Barb is a mother and sister to everyone; whether it be Sigma Tau Omega, where she reigns as Honorary Sister and Advisor, or Beta Delta Phi where she is moderator and friend.

Yet, the key to Barb is her love for others. She extends an open affection to all of us. She has made us feel truly special through her easy going attitude and her ability to listen without passing judgement.

She has shared our laughter and our tears and has truly helped us to grow these past several years.

For her tireless dedication, sharing, listening, and caring, the Prologue staff of 1985 dedicates this yearbook to Barbara Susi.

there are the silent times when the trees don't sing and the poets are quiet and the earth labors in anguish to bring forth new life.

it is the silent empty time which brings meaning to the warmth of the rising sun.

Beta Delta Phi is in its twenty-first year at Sacred Heart. Beta is proud of how well they have worked together to promote academic, religious, and social concerns on campus and off.

Beta supports the United Way, Lord Chamberlain Nursing Home and the Christian Children Fund. They sponsored a Christmas Crafts Bazaar, and helped Sigma Tau Omega with their Appalachia Drive. In memory of Sally Krawiec, a sister who suffered from leukemia, Beta co-sponsored a Volleyball Marathon with Nu Epsilon Omega for the Leukemia Society.

This year, Beta held its Twentieth Anniversary Banquet honoring alumni and their new honorary sister, Barb Susi. They also sponsored a "Let's Go Crazy" Mixer and a "Rock-til-you-drop" Pub Night.

Beta would like to wish the best of luck to all graduating seniors.

Sigma Tau Omega Fraternity was founded in 1968 by seven young men who wished to promote the ideas of brotherhood and community through a social service organization. Sigma Tau annually sponsors the Appalachia Drive for the poor in the mountainous Kentucky region, an effort which collects clothing, food, and toys for the needy. They also sponsor fund-raising activities for the American Cancer Society, along with SHU mixers and pub nights.

The fraternity sponsors an Associate Brotherhood program where prospective brothers sponsor and participate in various social action projects. The fraternity feels that this is a rewarding experience because it gives the associate brother a feeling of helping others while enriching their educational experience.

Nu Epsilon Omega, a social service organization which stresses sisterhood and promotes many social and charitable fundraising events, was founded in 1978, and is now the largest sorority on campus.

The sorority sponsored a "Block Party" Mixer and a pub night featuring "Clockwork." The sorority raised over $300 for the United Way, and participated in Christmas caroling with Pi Sigma Phi. The sorority's proudest event was the third annual Volleyball Marathon for Leukemia, which was co-sponsored with Beta Delta Phi in memory of Sally Krawiec.

The sisters are actively involved in organizations such as Student and Class Government, Presidential Gold Key, Senate, and Prologue co-editors.

Nu Epsilon Omega extends best wishes, happiness, and success to all of its graduating sisters.

Gamma Chi Zeta, the youngest fraternity on campus, was founded in 1983, by 30 students who thought it was time for a new and innovative fraternity. During its first year, it became the largest fraternity on campus.

The brothers are involved in many campus organizations such as Student and Class Government, Presidential Gold Key I.F.S.C., Marketing Club, and Who's Who Candidates.

They sponsored a Parent Phone-a-Thon in 1983, and have sponsored several mixers such as the "Block Party" Mixer and "Dance History 101" Mixer. The "Comedy Hour" Pub Night was one of the biggest events this past fall. They have sponsored a food drive for the needy.

The brothers will strive to promote social interaction among students, and will continue to be an innovative, integral part of SHU life.

Pi Sigma Phi, the oldest sorority on campus, was founded in 1963. Pi, originally known as the Prosphelean Society, stands for "Good Friends." The sorority currently has over 500 alumni, some of which are still actively contributing to the sorority.

The sisters are actively involved in various organizations on campus, such as Presidential Gold Key, Student and Class Government, and Prologue. They currently sponsor Mary Knoll Missionaries, Special Olympics and the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

This year, Pi sponsored a "Pre-Holiday Bash" Pub Night, and a "Let's Get Excited" Mixer, both of which were great successes. Pi also went Christmas caroling at St. Vincents Hospital.

The sisters of Pi Sigma Phi wish all graduating seniors the best of luck in their futures.

Sigma Psi Delta, the oldest active fraternity on the Sacred Heart campus, was founded in the Spring of 1968, with its founding name being The Spi Deltan Society. With over 200 active alumni, the brothers continue to bring together the concept of brotherhood.

Some of the community action organizations the brothers have previously been involved with are the Easter Seal Society, American Red Cross and American Cancer Society. They have also in the past sponsored numerous pub nights and mixers.

The brothers of Sigma Psi Delta will continue to be concerned with the needs of people in the community and will do their best to help make life more enjoyable.

The Inter-Fraternity/Sorority Council is an organization made up of two representatives from each of the Greek organizations on campus. Their main goal is to bring the sororities and fraternities closer to each other by sponsoring various events on campus.

I.F.S.C. has sponsored several events this year which have been great successes. They sponsored a Greek Party in February, and a pub night and mixer with Pi Sigma Phi. But their biggest event this year was Springfest. Friday night consisted of the Skit and King and Queen Competition with a mixer following. Saturday was the Semi-formal held at the Greek Orthodox Hall. With balloons suspending from the air, everyone relaxed and danced until early morning.

Once again, I.F.S.C. has shown us what being sisters and brothers truly means — true, life-long friends.

PIONEER BOOTERS CLOSE OUT 1984 SEASON WITH 9-9 RECORD

A young Sacred Heart University soccer team grew stronger as the year progressed, winning six of its final eight games, to finish the season a respectable 9-9 under first-year head coach Joe McGuigan.

McGuigan has reason to be optimistic about the future of soccer at SHU since he will be only losing co-captains Mike McGuigan, a back, and goalie Mark Morazes to graduation. Freshman Americo Benedito turned in an outstanding rookie season and copped team scoring honors with nine goals and three assists while freshman Alex Osello and sophomore Tony Gomes followed with 15 points a piece.

"I feel real good about the season," noted coach McGuigan. "We achieved a majority of our goals. We had a .500 season and improved our offensive punch. It could have been an even better season if it were not for injuries that hurt us defensively."

Women's Basketball

LADY PIONEER CAGERS MAKE IT THROUGH A TOUGH SEASON

There were few bright spots during the 1984-85 Sacred Heart women's basketball season as the Lady Pioneers posted a 3-22 record that included a 2-12 ledger and a seventh-place finish in the NECC.

Pedro Tagatac's combine was another young one that featured no seniors, two juniors, six sophomores, and two freshmen. The Lady Pioneers could not compensate for the loss of All NECC performer Elizabeth Luckie and were able to beat NECC Foe Lowell twice and N.Y. Tech for their three wins as hopes of improving upon a 9-16 campaign in 1983-84 never materialized.

No one averaged double figures in the scoring column but sophomore center Kelley Gray led the Pioneers with 9.6 points and 9.4 rebounds in addition to breaking her own school record with 92 blocked shots.

Junior forward and captain Nancy Stanton followed with 8.8 points, 8.3 rebounds and a team high free throw mark of .730 while closing in on SHU's career scoring record. Stanton has totaled 765 points the past three seasons and needs just seven markers her senior campaign to pass Luckie's mark of 771.

Sophomore guard Val Light topped the team in assists (82, 3.3) and field goal percentage (.362).

A combination of ineffective shooting from the floor and an abundance of turn-overs proved to be the Lady Pioneers downfall, SHU just managed to connect on .319 of their field goal tries (last in the NECC) compared to .387 accuracy for the opponents. Sacred Heart also committed 567 turnovers (23 a game) in contrast to 430 (17.2) for the foes.

Ann Farley (8.0), Kim Schmidt (7.8), Netta Cooper (6.5), Lisa James (5.1), Tracy Gelsinger (3.9) and Patty Yoston (3.3) rounded out the squad. SHU was out-scored 74.9 to 55.1 and outrebounded by a 55.9 to 45.2 margin.

Cheerleaders

"Cheerleaders electrify SHU crowd"

Sacred Heart's 1985 cheerleading squad gave their support in cheering with the fans to help the men's basketball team make it into their fourth consecutive Division II New England Regionals. The cheerleaders impressed the crowd with their innovative cheers, mounts, pyramids, and jumps. The squad spent much of its time developing a diverse dance performance which dazzled the crowd every time. The routine was performed to the Pointer Sisters' song "I'm So Excited." The routine was energetic and performed with flair. Also, for the first time one of the male cheerleaders was incorporated into the dance routine making the squad seem more complete. The SHU cheerleaders had a fun-filled season, while showing true Sacred Heart spirit.

Men's Basketball

PIONEERS MAKE 5TH STRAIGHT REGIONAL APPEARANCE DURING 25-7 CAMPAIGN (1984-85)

Dave Bike and his 1984-85 Sacred Heart University men's basketball combine completed another banner season as the pioneers compiled a glossy 25-7 ledger while making their fifth straight appearance in the NCAA New England Regional Finals.

The Pioneers were denied their fourth consecutive New England crown and sixth overall by host AIC 80-74 March 9 in the regional finals after SHU had knocked off crosstown rival Bridgeport and its 7 foot 6 center Manute Bol 47-45 in the opening round.

It was the 10th regional appearance for Sacred Heart over the last 15 years and the Pioneers are now 14-13 in NCAA post-season play. SHU finished tied for second with New Hampshire College and behind UB in the New England Collegiate Conference in the NECC post-season playoffs.

The 25-7 finish improved Dave Bike's seven-year career ledger at SHU to a sparkling 159-54 (.746), moving him up to fourth on the NCAA Division II Active Men's Coaches chart by percentage. Bike's record over the last four campaigns is an astounding 104-25 (.806). The Pioneers were 26-6 in 1983-84. It was the sixth time in seven years that Bike's teams have recorded 20 or more wins.

The Hearts also continued their excellent play in regular-season tournaments as well. They garnered the New Hampshire College Invitation for Bike's ninth regular-season title in 16 tourney starts as SHU has won 32 of 41 over that span. The Hearts were thwarted in their bid for 18th SHU Holiday Classic crown with an 80-78 loss in triple OT to Franklin Pierce.

Top individual honors were garnered by the backcourt combo of junior Roger Younger and senior co-captain Bill Bayno as the pair worked together well and were both able to earn All-American accolades. Younger, a third team MABC All-American as a sophomore, was selected to the NABC All-American second team while averaging 18.4 points per outing and moving into the 10th position on SHU's all-time scoring list with 1,510 markers.

Bayno directed the attack and earned NABC third team honors. He scored at a 13.7 clip and led the team in assists (5.5 per game) and steals (73) while drawing the opponents top offensive performer on defense. His emphasis on solid defense proved to be contagious as SHU managed to hold opponents to 68.9 points and .452 shooting from the floor.

Younger and Bayno became the eighth and ninth Sacred Heart players over the last 13 years to have earned All-American recognition.

Bike realized that if the Pioneers were to be successful, the frontcourt would also have to make a major contribution. That area became a concern when All NECC forward Keith Johnson was forced to the sidelines for the entire season because of grades. What Bike did get from his frontcourt was a balanced effort. Sophomore transfer Kevin Stevens (Coaches Award winner) showed an abundance of determination on the court and led the Pioneers in rebounding (8.3) while adding 11.9 points an outing. Travis Smith was equally important with 12.2 markers and 6.8 caroms.

Co-captains Dexter Nembhard was the fifth starter (8.1 points and 3.4 rebounds) while junior Joe Jackson was indispensable as the sixth man, a role he performed to the hilt. He not only popped in 8.2 points a game but added another 5.8 rebounds. Jackson was named the team's Most Improved Player for the second straight season.

Womens Volleyball

1984 WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL TEAM RECORDS 12-17 RECORD

It was a very rewarding season for first-year head coach Mary Ellen McCarthy as her Lady Pioneers women's volleyball team posted a 12-17 record. While a 12-17 ledger would not ordinarily draw rave reviews, it had to in this case considering the SHU women were 0-34 the previous season and sported nine new faces (only one senior) on its roster.

"Having the people who were legitimate volleyball players was the difference," noted the former SHU softball and volleyball standout. While softball greats Elizabeth Luckie and Tracy Gelsinger were the team leaders on the floor and held the team together, a pair of freshmen made the major contributions. Germaine Kozlowski (hitter) and Maryann Piorek were scholastic standouts while at Andrew Ward in Fairfield and were able to make an impact on the program.

"Germaine (Kozlowski) was the best all-around player," according to her coach while Piorek "had the job of setting people up and did it well." Kozlowski was selected to the New England Collegiate Conference All-Star second team while Piorek was voted to the Eastern Conn. State All-Tournament combine.

"Not too many people expected us to play this well," continued McCarthy. "It was very pleasing to see the kids develop. They never gave up. Hopefully, we can continue to improve over the next few years."

All-American softball pitcher Debbie Tidy and Gelsinger were playing the sport for the first time since their high school days in Vancouver, B.C.

Kelley Gray, Kim DeCarlo, and Janine Sesa rounded out the squad.

Mens Volleyball

Men's Volleyball Team concludes season with a 14-6 game win.

The SHU men's volleyball team concludes another fine season by sweeping Queen's College 15-1, 15-10, 15-6. The team finished with an overall record of 14-6 and 8-6 in the league. This is the second consecutive year that the volleyball team has won 14 games in a 20 game season. This year's acceptance in the ECVL (Eastern Collegiate Volleyball League) proved to be a very competitive one. Finishing with an 8-6 league mark, the Pioneers placed third in their division. Unfortunately this eliminated them from the playoffs, because only the top two teams in each division qualify.

This year's team was led by senior captain George Derbyshire and senior George Blazaz. With four returning starters and two other remaining members, the team is desperately in need of a bench with experienced players.

1985 Lady Pioneers Gain 4th Straight NCAA Final Four Trip During 47-6 Season

Pitcher Debbie Tidy and shortstop Elizabeth Luckie, a pair of First Team All Americans, directed the Sacred Heart women's softball team to a record-breaking 47-6 season and their fourth straight appearance in the NCAA Division Women's Softball Final Four.

The SHU ladies lost a pair of 2-0 decisions to Stephen F. Austin and Akron in nine innings at Northridge, Calif., for a fourth place finish.

Sacred Heart defended its NECC title and ran its unbeaten streak in league play to 28 straight over a two-year period. With the NECC crown, SHU earned an automatic bid to the NCAA's and hosted the opening round at Pioneer Park and beat C. W. Post 8-0, and AIC 7-0 and 3-0 to earn their way west.

Tidy, the sophomore sensation from Vancouver, B.C., was outstanding again as she compiled a 26-3 record and a miniscule 0.14 ERA while tossing four no-hitters and two perfectos. She has now won 56 games and lost only seven in her two seasons. She struck out 261 and walked only 11 in 186 innings. Junior transfer Gail Holznagel lived up to her pre-season advances and gained second team All-American honors for the second time by complementing Tidy on the mound and posting a 21-3 ledger and 0.59 ERA. At one point during the season, the pair combined for 17 consecutive shutouts.

While Tidy and Holznagel were doing the job on the mound, Luckie was the catalyst on the field. She made things happen by breaking five school records for at-bats (178), home runs (6), total bases (109), hits (70), and RBI (36) and tied another in runs scored (55).

Coach Pete DiOrio wanted to see his charges improve offensively and that they did by hitting .298 as a team compared to .247 last year and scored 5.1 runs compared to 4.3. The hitting of Tracy Gelsinger (.366), freshman Maryann Piorek (.346), Gail Holznagel (.343), Kim Schmidt (.311) and Nancy Stanton (.306) were the reasons for that climb.

While facing the most demanding schedule in SHU history, the 1985 squad was able to put together 18 and 22-game win streaks and captured the prestigious Lady Flames Classic in Lynchburg, Va.

Baseball

Pioneer Baseball Combine Finishes With Record 23-12 Season

Although the Sacred Heart university baseball team did not qualify for post-season play, the Pioneers did manage to put together a banner 23-12 campaign, setting the school record for wins in a season.

Head coach Joe Reitano resigned midway through his fourth season with SHU sporting a 14-3 record. The Pioneers were never able to regroup after that and closed out the second part of the season, splitting 18 games.

Sacred Heart displayed an ample amount of firepower at the plate, finishing third in New England in both team batting (.345) and runs scored (8.8). The Pioneers set school records for at-bats (1108), runs (300), hits (380), and doubles (54). On the mound the hoped-for improvement did not materialize as the SHU staff posted a 5.58 ERA.

Sophomore outfielder Darryl Brinkley turned in an impressive season by breaking five school records in addition to leading the team with an even .400 norm at the plate.

Senior third sacker Tony Capuano was selected first team All Northeast after gaining second team laurels as a junior. Capuano batted .373 and fanned only twice in 134 plate appearances.

In addition to Brinkley and Capuano, there were six others who were able to hit .300 or better. Doug Vigliotti (.381), Cliff Deutsch (.375), Eugene Luckie (.352), Steve Chille (.348), Frank Fedeli (.333), and Bob Brown (.300) were also able to produce offensively.

Sophomore lefty Bill Vizzo was the workhorse on the hill with 63 innings worked (5-2, 6.29 ERA) while junior transfer Ed Conway (5-1, 4.26) and sophomore Rick Mariani (4-1, 4.66 ERA) were pleasant surprises. The staff did accomplish one of its goals in that it improved its walk/strikeout ratio. Walks were down to four a game from five a year ago and strikeouts improved to 4.1 from 3.7.

Special Events

At this year's annual Stanislaw-Adolf Mikolic Memorial Lecture ABC News Foreign Correspondent Bill Blakemore spoke on a special subject. His topic, "Pope John Paul II's Politics With a Side Glance at the Nature of his Charisma and What he Really Teaches About Sex, Love, and Human Nature," provided the audience with Blakemore's insight of the man he has observed closely since the Pope's election. Mr. Blakemore has covered everything from the Iranian hostage crisis to England's royal wedding and proved himself to be a very perceptive speaker. The lecture was open to the public and held in Sacred Heart's Community Room of the Campus Center.

On Friday May 10th Sacred Heart University welcomed friends and members of the community to a convocation honoring His Excellency, the Most Reverend John Joseph O'Conner. Archbishop O'Conner offered an address in the Main Auditorium and was the recipient of an honorary Doctor of Laws degree. Both Catholic and non-Catholic admirers came to Sacred Heart to honor the well respected man.

Bernice Donahue, vice-president of marketing and sales for Curriculum Targets, joined a panel of specialists April 11th in a forum presentation of the subject "Women in Careers." The program was co-sponsored by the Sacred Heart student Government's Committee to Promote Academic Excellence and the University's Center for Women and was held in the SHU main Auditorium. Other prominent guests who spoke of the vast opportunities open to women today, married or single, included Senator Margaret Morton, and Toni Grief, executive vice-president of Williamsburgh Mortgage Corporation. Sacred Heart opened this event to the public free of charge, providing the community with a valuable and informative seminar.

On March 7th Sacred Heart University's newspaper, "The Spectrum" hosted a rally protesting the Reagan Administration's proposed cuts in student aid. Held in SHU's cafeteria, the rally packed in people from both sides of the controversy. In an effort to enlighten students about an issue that affects each and everyone of them personally, Julie Savino from Financial Aid spoke along with members of the spectrum staff. A written address from Christine Neidermeier was also read. The rally brought together students from all financial backgrounds and provided them with the opportunity to express views and have questions concerning student aid answered by experts.

It was the biggest party yet at Sacred Heart University. Some of the world's most renowned individuals were in attendance that October night. The Ghostbusters made an appearance, helping keep the SHU Pub safe from werewolves and other nighttime ghoulies. Arabian harem girls cavorted with dwarfed old men while Bonnie and Clyde stayed close to the edges, casing the joint for stolen gems and stale pretzels.

But the highlight of the evening came at a bewitching hour when the most elite of SHU guest list paraded around the cafe. Mickey and Minnie Mouse, a trio of singing nuns, a Sweeney Todd style butcher and Park Avenue's favorite signpost all walked away with awards for their uniqueness. But everyone who attended Sacred Heart's Costume party left feeling like a new person.

In mid-December amidst holiday preparations and after finals, Sacred Heart students were given a chance to dress up and party down. The semi-formal dance was held at St. Nicholas with music provided by Heartbeat. Happy couples danced the night away on the crowded dance floor. A delicious buffet and drinks were provided to add to the festivities and all who attended had a wonderful time.

Sacred Heart students exhibited a great flair for dancing as the floor filled up quickly with talented hoofers. The band provided rock music to boogie to and slow songs to romance with as everyone who couldn't resist the beat got up to dance. The night ended too early and partiers went home exhausted or on to another adventure.

Semi-formal

The night Sacred Heart University's Clubs, Organizations, and Greeks look forward to every year is skit night. Many a long evening is spent writing and rewriting scripts in the hope of placing number one. This year's festivities were hosted by Diane Parkes and Charlie Feroletto who were treated, along with the audience, to a wide array of talented acts.

We traveled to Oz, attended secretarial school, and saw Sacred Heart through the eyes of prospective freshmen. Sacred Heart hosted the '85 Olympics and got its own news show this year. We were saved from imminent loss of Dean Croffy by his Angels and were witness to the creation of the Dean himself. The acts were judged on their creativity by Mary Szamatulski, Gina Siano, Patty Lynch, and Tom Calabrese who undoubtedly are wondering what will Sacred Heart students think of next?! Skit Night '86 is sure to provide the answer.

The procession begins as pair by pair, beautiful King and Queen candidates make their way down the aisle. The decorated stage becomes their setting as the spotlight shines down creating a moment to cherish forever. In those few minutes of limelight, Sacred Heart honors those students who have put in time and effort towards a certain group and have been deemed worthy by that group to represent them.

The entire cast of candidates stand waiting to hear who will be singled out for the honor of King and Queen.

The anticipation mounts as the runners up are announced and awarded their applause. When that final moment of revelation arrives, the auditorium falls silent. Fingers are crossed and hearts are racing when the winners are revealed. The air is filled with deafening applause as the new King and Queen come forward and are crowned by the old. Their reign will last until next year when the tradition will continue, giving Sacred Heart another lovely procession and a new King and Queen.

Springfest

Springfest ended Saturday night with a semi-formal dinner dance at the Greek Orthodox Hall. After a few rousing hours of food, drink, and dance the winners of the King, Queen, and skit night competitions were announced. Awards were handed out and thanks were given until the guests grew impatient to dance again. The music provided by Funkestra got even the shyest people up on their feet and out on the floor.

The promise of spring brought out love in the hearts of SHU people. At a table with a group of friends or "alone" on a crowded dance floor with a special someone, Springfest '85 was a time to share. The memories made that night will last forever and can be taken out in years to come and shared again.

COMMENCEMENT

Senior Week

Senior Mass

In keeping with a beautiful tradition, the students came together as one to start off the senior week festivities with the Senior Mass. May 12th was a time to share with our family and friends the special feeling of accomplishment and the quiet pride we experienced at this point in our lives. Standing there among loved ones, we couldn't help but feel thankful.

One of the more touching moments came with the presentation of symbols that had special meaning to the class of 1985. Included among these tokens were the student handbook, textbook of knowledge, a Manute Bol t-shirt, a yearbook, and a graduation tassel. These items represented the good times and the trying times that will be in our memories forever.

On behalf of the class of 1985, Christine DeMarchis and Eunice Giaquinto presented an appreciation award to Sacred Heart University for all it has given the students. Dean Croffy accepted the award which will be hung in the student lounge. The choir, composed only of seniors, contributed a hearty effort in the singing department. Fortunately, Sister Anne was there to guide us through the rough spots. The mass itself was inspiring and left us feeling refreshed and a little melancholy at the prospect of leaving some friends and a wonderful institution behind.

Senior week started off this year with a bang. Sacred Heart friends and faculty gathered together to dance the hours away at Daniel's Nightclub in Hamden. Designed to bring the university community together off campus, this night provided all in attendance ample opportunity to mix and mingle. The beautiful surroundings and hot and cold buffet added to the festivities, creating a breath-taking atmosphere.

Seniors and underclassmen alike had the chance to strut their stuff amid colorful balloons and under wild lights. The entire club pulsed to the beat of records played by a deejay in conjunction with a giant video screen. Chairpeople Josephine Haidar and Billy Bayno were responsible for helping to make the club extravaganza a night no senior would soon forget.

Cocktail Cruise

Tuesday May 14th seniors and friends set sail on an evening of great excitement. The Cocktail Cruise is always a crowd pleaser and this year was no exception. The weather was perfect for a night of partying on the high seas much to the delight of chairpersons Paul Vimini and Tom Rychlik. Plenty of food and drink were provided and the air of anticipation grew with every breeze that blew by us. When we boarded, the boat was rocking gently in the waves but as soon as deejay John Kelly started the music the boat began to rock to a different beat. The brisk sea air revived us, giving us the strength to dance all night. Vivacious seniors set "the roof on fire" with their hot dance steps while others mingled below, enjoying the ocean breeze.

As the shoreline approached and the evening drew to its inevitable close, everyone was reluctant to leave such a good time behind. So heads went together and plans were made to continue the party elsewhere until the morning light. The rhythm of this night will be in our memories forever.

The middle of senior week peaked Wednesday evening at Awards Night. This event gave our family, friends, and faculty the chance to show their support and appreciation to the class of 1985. The evening was hosted by Loretta Dimatteo and John Pidlipchak and it allowed Sacred Heart a very special opportunity to honor its meritable seniors. Each senior that was presented with an award felt a great sense of accomplishment at being acknowledged for a job well done. The seniors were recognized for being strong student leaders since the start of their career at Sacred Heart and were awarded for all their time given to the university both academically and socially.

Thanks to chairpeople John DiBiaso, Tracey Geist, Fred Palmieri and Annette Heybrook, Awards Night turned out to be a memorable evening. And thanks to all the honored seniors for their hard work and dedication, which was shown by the numerous award categories filled.

Senior Banquet

On Thursday evening May 16 during Senior week, the Senior Banquet was held at Hillandale Country Club in Trumbull, CT. The surroundings furnished a stunning atmosphere for this gala occasion. Seniors, underclassmen and administrators arrived at 8:00 pm dressed to the nines and ready to sample from the open bar and hors d'oeuvre table until dinner was served.

Co-chairpeople Christina D'Arcangelo and Nancy Mooney made a champagne toast asking everyone to enjoy themselves and wishing all the best of luck and success in their futures. Dinner was served around 9:00 with filet of sole and baked stuffed chicken breast as entree choices which were delicious enough to make anyone's mouth water. Throughout the course of the evening the band, New York City Swing, supplied plenty of danceable music. More than just your average band, New York City Swing delighted the guests with dance routines they performed with their magnificent horn section.

As the evening progressed, the dance floor filled to capacity with energetic people doing everything from the twist to the swing to the 80's freestyle dancing. Champagne glasses and covered matches were given out as souvenirs and enough pictures were taken to fill many scrapbooks.

The special evening came to a close when New York City Swing played the theme song "Missing You" by Diana Ross. Eyes grew misty and friends held each other close while the song played, reminding us of just how much we will be missing when we leave Sacred Heart. This evening gave us one more special memory to make our time at SHU that much more precious.

Early Friday morning, still recovering from the proceeding nights festivities, about forty students and faculty arrived at Fairchild Wheeler to participate in the Senior Golf tournament. Chaired by Bob Bettencourt, this fun filled event was an original at Sacred heart, but one that's sure to become a tradition. After a lot of time was spent driving the golf carts around, a three way tie was called among the eight teams, and it was virtually impossible to choose a winner.

When the tournament ended, participants joined the Senior picnic which was already in progress outside the Campus center at Sacred Heart University. Seniors as well as underclassmen enjoyed a day of football, frisbee, soccer, and dancing. Special thanks should go to the underclassmen who enabled the seniors to relax completely by cooking for them and to the chairperson, John Pidlipchak, for pulling the event together. Despite a few drizzles of rain, all who attended had a great time!

Senior Picnic

Graduation

Despite a rainy start Saturday morning Graduation managed to shine as the most important day of Senior week in the minds of all seniors and their families. The 19th Commencement ceremonies began at 10:30 am with the traditional procession into the gymnasium led by John Croffy, Dean of students. Once everyone was settled into their places Jeremy Boe led the singing of the National Anthem which was followed by the invocation given by The Reverend Dennis Knureck and Sister Anne Louise Nadeau. Dr. Thomas P. Melady then addressed his charge to the seniors stressing the importance of christian values, morals, and goals.

This year's commencement was given by the youngest commencement speaker and honoree in the 22 year history of Sacred Heart University. State Representative, The honorable Christine M. Neidermeier spoke about "taking the time to care about not only yourselves and your education but also that we can help others that are less fortunate." Ms. Neidermeier also emphasized the importance of values and opportunities while climbing the corporate ladder.

Next came the Conferral and presentation of degrees. As the graduates made their way back to their seats the department chairpeople were standing by to congratulate them with a warm embrace. Champagne bottles were given out, corks flew, flashbulbs popped, and proud applause rang out.

Susan Ann Scalici gave a moving valedictorian speech, elaborating on our various needs and the salience of using our time wisely. Honorary degrees were bestowed upon Frank J. Connor, Alexander Hawley, Christine M. Neidermeier and Frank Shakespeare. Senior class president Christina D'Arcangelo then took the stand to salute her class and remind us of the value of true friends.

Finally, the Benediction was given by Bishop Curtis. As the graduates departed from the gymnasium, many eyes were filled with tears of sorrow and joy. Families, teachers, and friends exchanged hugs and congratulations as the graduates closed the book on another chapter of their lives, moving on to start a new one.

Congratulations!

Office of the President

To the Class of 1985:

Please accept my warmest congratulations on the academic achievement that you have achieved at Sacred Heart University.

I hope that you have enjoyed the experiences that Sacred Heart University has provided, and take with you the talents that hard work and cooperation has provided. Your education does not stop as you receive your degree, but it is something to be proud of. Sacred Heart University takes pride in you as you take your place in the community and contribute to the best of your abilities.

You must now move on to higher challenges and implement the skills and knowledge you have accumulated. The University and I have the utmost confidence that you are ready to be successful in your future endeavors.

I am certain that your years at Sacred Heart University have been memorable. With my warmest best wishes, I bid you farewell and hope that you will enjoy the blessings that God bestows on you.

Go forth now and seek all those opportunities but think of us from time to time and remember that your University and especially the faculty and staff are always here to serve you.

With best wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Thank You

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all the people who helped contribute to the 1985 Prologue yearbook:

Student Government — for having faith in us about finishing the students yearbook on time. Thank you for the much needed funding for without it the book wouldn't be as good as it turned out to be.

Budget and Finance — for understanding that prices do go up and that money is needed to produce a good yearbook.

Security — for always opening the office on a Sunday afternoons especially if we didn't let you know a week before hand.

Dean Croffy — for your support, understanding, and your willingness to always help which was greatly appreciated.

The Alumni Office — for letting us borrow everything from white-out, to keys, to typewriters, to dictionaries. Thank you very much.

The Public Relations Office — for letting us borrow photos on very short notice.

The Athletic Department Staff, Dave Bike and Sandy Sulzycki — for all your help with the sports section and all the write ups.

Tom Kelly — for all your encouragement and support, and for always being there when we needed you.

Susan Vining March — for expressing your ideas and concerns and for just being you.

Sr. Anne Louise Nadeau — for helping us with the memorium section. We are looking forward to working with you next year.

Crown Studio — for your willingness to help and for being there when we needed you.

Thanks to the dedication of our staff for putting up with our moods, our tempers, and our fits of madness.

Cathy Scavone — Cathy, what would we do without you? Thanks for being the only person on the staff who could type 80 words per minute, when the rest of us could only type 10 words per minute. You and Kate did an excellent job on greeks and clubs. Cathy, we'll miss you next year (and your "PAW").

Kate Karl — Thanks for having confidence in us, your dedication and enthusiasm was well appreciated. Thanks for always coming prepared with munchies for a long nights work. Your get-up-and-go attitude was an inspiration to us all.

Katy Voldstad — What would we do without your great talent with words? Your creativity and imagination truly helped make this book special. We are looking forward to your ingenuity next year.

Greg Izzo — Thanks for being very dedicated for putting up with us. You have a very special talent and it showed in the divider pages and on the cover. Thanks for sticking it out till the very end. Greg, start thinking of something for next year — we need your talent to make "our" book extremely special.

Chrissy D'Arcangelo — Thanks for your constant dedication in doing sports. You always pulled through when the time was running out. Chrissy, what can we say except — "Quit yer B----," we know who that's for! We will miss you Chrissy.

Alane Redwanz — Thanks for doing the work no one else wanted to do, and also, thanks for correcting our grammatical errors.

Joe Karl — You always seem to come up with the most out-of-the-ordinary pictures. Thanks for always having your camera available.

Tony Giugliano — Thanks for being yourself and for always making you and your camera available.

Stacie Lorenti — Thanks for the handy-dandy typing. You were always willing to help and we greatly appreciated that.

Lisa Nastu — Thanks for pulling through for us with those wild and slightly outrageous captions and ideas.

Nancy Mooney — Thanks for helping Chrissy on the sports section, and thanks for always volunteering to help.

Christine DeMarchis — Thanks for writing such a beautiful dedication.

Eunice Giaquinto — Thanks for coming up to the office and for helping us complete senior week on time.

Frank Ball — What could we say but thank you. Without your help and constant dedication this book would have never been completed on time. Thanks for being our friend.

In closing we would like to include a quote from the 1984 Prologue:

"I would like to ask one thing of everyone who looks at this book, before you criticize, please take into consideration the time, work, personal sacrifices, but most of all the love that has been poured into these pages. If this book has made you smile, laugh, or remember a special time, then we've succeeded in accomplishing our original goal — and it's all been worth it!!!"

True Friends

There are many people that we meet in our lives
but only a very few will make a lasting impression on our minds and hearts
It is these people that we will think of often and who will always remain important to us
as true friends
